4 Best Altcoins will Increase 100X By June 2024

While the price of Bitcoin remains steady at over $70K, numerous other cryptocurrencies, such as Notcoin, Ethereum, Gamestop, and many more, are getting ready to see 100X rises in June.

The altcoins are more profitable due to the fear and greed index's greedy market feelings, which makes now the ideal moment to add to portfolios before they rise. Furthermore, the prevalence of Bitcoin is likewise approaching average. Even the price of Bitcoin is rising, now trading at roughly $71K, indicating that the altcoin era is about to begin.

Notcoin, Gamestop, and numerous other cryptocurrencies have seen significant increases in value recently. Furthermore, following a 12% increase in the previous day, the market capitalization has returned to $2.63 trillion, and the trading volume is $90.34 billion. Let's talk about the four best altcoins that are expected to gain 100 times this month, given the current bullish conditions.

1. Notcoin

The phenomenal price success of Notcoin over the last several days has placed it among the most popular alternative cryptocurrencies. With a market cap of $108,327,674, its price has jumped 131% in the past week, reaching $0.02246, and the increase is complete. A 31% increase in trade volume indicates that network activity is still robust, even though gains for altcoins have been restrained over the past 24 hours. On a more serious note, it hit a new record low of $0.02896 three days ago, and if the current trend continues, the price of Notcoin might reach $0.1.

2.Gamestop (GME)

Meme coins have had a 97% rise in value this week, reaching $0.00968, and Gamestop is keeping the frenzy going. As a result of the massive gains made previously, the token's trading volume is $108,327,674 and its market cap is $66,636,403. Meme coin has also seen a comparable upswing in the past, going from half its current value to twice that. Its enormous growth potential makes it an essential component of any investor's portfolio.

3. JasmyCoin

May saw a 101% increase in the price of JasmyCoin, which is now $0.03856. June is also expected to see a similar increase in prices. There has been a 68% increase in trading volume to $503,653,734, which bodes well for the imminent recovery of this altcoin price, which is currently trending slightly upwards. Although it is the best value this year, JasmyCoin has never been able to reach its all-time high of $4.99, which it established three years ago. Given the current trajectory, the JASMY price has the potential to reach $1 before setting its sights on even greater targets.

4.Ethereum

Ethereum is making progress, but only at a snail's pace. After the SEC approved the Ethereum ETF, the leading cryptocurrency is expected to skyrocket to 6,000 USD. This forecast is based on an examination of the approval-phase growth pattern of the Bitcoin ETF. Additionally, a comparable surge is anticipated for Ethereum, an altcoin, since it closely tracks the price patterns of Bitcoin. The current market capitalization of Ethereum is $455,436,596,577, and its price is $3,790.76.
